

Registration for the 32nd Annual Summer School for Gerontology
Extended Until July 25, 2008

The registration deadline for the 32nd annual Summer School of Gerontology has been extended to July 25, 2008 to allow additional time for interested parties to sign up.

The Summer School will run August 24-29, 2008, at the Francis Marion Hotel in Charleston. Registration for this workshop is $200 for entire week of classes or $50 per day.

Summer School of Gerontology offers classes for caregivers, home health aides and homemakers, nursing home staff, and other professionals in the field of aging. Some of the classes offered at the Summer School of Gerontology include Long Term Care and Health Care Planning, Predatory Lending and Mortgage Foreclosure, Avoiding Investment Scams and Options, Choices and Protections in Your Medicare Coverage.

Continuing Education Credits will be available from the Board of Social Work Examiners, Long Term Health Care Administrators Board, and the Board of Examiners for Counselors, Therapists, and Psycho-Education Specialists in many cases.

For more information on the Summer School of Gerontology visit the Office on Aging website <http://www.aging.sc.gov/> or call John Roberts at 803-734-9940.